

Chapter 3 [Personnel]

A good public library has at its heart qualified staff that is paid competitive salaries. The staff is well trained through an ongoing program of staff development that includes both in-service training and participation in relevant classes, workshops, and meetings outside the library. Staff has a thorough understanding of all library policies and is able to interpret those policies to library patrons. The public library has access to the services of a qualified librarian.

For the purposes of this document, a full-time equivalent employee (FTE) works 37.5 hours per week including paid breaks of 15 minutes or less but excluding paid or unpaid meal breaks of 20 minutes or more.

APPLICABLE CORE STANDARDS – Please see Core Standards 1, 4, 5, 6, 8, 13, 16, and 20 in Chapter 1.

PERSONNEL STANDARDS

1. To ensure that library staff has a clear understanding of their responsibilities and rights as employees, the library has a board-approved personnel policy. The policy is developed by the library administrator with input from the staff. (See Appendix J)
2. Staffing levels are sufficient to carry out the library's mission, develop and implement the library's long-range/strategic plan, and provide adequate staff to offer all basic services during all the hours that the library is open. The library's level of self-service vs. assisted staffing should be considered when calculating adequate staffing levels. Basic services include circulation and reference. (See Appendix K)
3. Job descriptions for all positions and a salary schedule are included in the personnel policy or provided elsewhere. The job descriptions and salary schedule are reviewed periodically (preferably annually, but at least every three years) and revised as needed. Staff members have access to these documents.
4. Personnel policy, job descriptions, and hiring practices are in compliance with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) guidelines and the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act.
5. The library compensates staff in a fair and equitable manner. Salaries alone typically account for up to 60 percent of the total operation budget. Salaries plus fringe benefits (FICA, pension such as IMRF, and health insurance) account for up to 70 percent.
The library compensates qualified entry-level librarians with a salary that meets the current recommendations of the Illinois Library Association or at the same rate received by an entry-level public school teacher with a master's degree, adjusted to reflect a twelve-month work year.
Example: In 2012–13, the median salary of an entry-level public school teacher with a master's degree was $40,160. Divide this amount by 10 and multiply the result by 12. $$40,160/10 = $4,016 \times 12 = $48,192$. (The figures are from the Illinois Teacher Salary Study, conducted annually by the Illinois State Board of Education, Data Analysis and Accountability Division; www.isbe.state.il.us/research/htmls/teacher_salary.htm)
The library compensates all other staff at a level that is competitive with salaries paid for equivalent positions in other public agencies within the same or approximately the same service area.
6. The library gives each new employee a thorough orientation and introduces the employee to the particular responsibilities of the new employee's job. The orientation includes but is not limited to the mission statement, library policies, guidelines, services of the library, employment benefits, and opportunities for continuing education.
7. The library has a performance appraisal system in place that provides staff with an annual evaluation of current performance and guidance in improving or developing new skills.
8. The library supports and encourages staff to acquire new skills, keep current with new developments in public libraries, and renew their enthusiasm for library work. Attendance at local, regional, state, and national conferences; relevant courses, workshops, seminars, and in-service training; and other library-related meetings provide a variety of learning experiences. The library provides paid work time and funding for registration and related expenses. While funding constraints may limit the total number of staff who can attend conferences, the attendance of at least the library administrator at the state library association conference is encouraged and funded.
9. The library provides funding to train staff in the use and maintenance of new technology and equipment.
10. The library provides access to library journals and other professional literature for the staff.
