

Suggestions & Questions from Our Library Users

November 2021

Miscellaneous-related comments

1. Why is a book on Islam on display but no Christian or Jewish books? I already know too much about that faith.

The library offers many displays from which patrons are free to check out books or other materials. Staff are continuously adding books to our display units, such as books about Islam that may be of interest to our community of 66,000 patrons, and striving to include items to meet the needs of such a diverse population. The library offers a large religion section that includes books on many religions including, but not limited to Christianity, Judaism, Buddhism and Islam. Please inquire at the Adult Services desk should you wish to find these books or any others from library collections.

2. Seed exchange?

Thank you for your suggestion. WNPL has investigated the possibility of hosting a seed exchange, including inquiry about experiences from other libraries and their communities. Unfortunately, this is not a project that WNPL can embark upon this time.

3. I would like to thank the current Board of Trustees for their support provided to library staff. Thank you all for your service.

Thank you for your gratitude. We will certainly make sure that the WNPLD Library Board of Trustees is aware of your compliment. Board members are elected volunteers and definitely work very hard to support our communities, including our dedicated staff community.

Thank you for taking the time to help us improve our service to you. If suggested a title for purchase, we have passed it along to staff members who order materials.

Ryan Livergood, Executive Director

Patron comments appear here unabridged and unedited.