USING PRESSREADER

From the website or app, PressReader provides quick browsing of top stories and topics in the Home Feed. Home Feed is usually the first screen that users see when accessing PressReader and features the newest articles from all sources available through WNPL's PressReader service. Here are some tips for navigating:

Using PressReader in your browser:

- ▲ To view an article in the Home Feed, click the arrow at the bottom of the article summary.
- ▲ Scroll to the right to view more articles or publications.
- ▲ Customize your Home Feed to be as unique as your reading interests by using the Following menu. Click the "three line" menu button  at the top left side of the screen, select Home Feed and then Following from the bottom of the menu list. Set your preferences:
 - Publications - Individual magazines and newspapers
 - Sections - World news, business, entertainment, sports, etc.
 - Interests - Topics and subjects that appeal to you
- ▲ Use the Search box at the top of the screen to look for specific people, places, or terms within articles.

Accessibility – To change the font size, listen to an article, or change the language of an article, click the three dots in the upper right corner of the PressReader screen (next to the search box.)

- Interface Language allows users to switch the primary language for PressReader, which is available in 14 languages.
- Accessibility Mode changes the page view to a simple list format, which may be easier to navigate.
- Translate allows articles to be translated into one of 18 languages.
- Listen will read the article to users. (Articles are read in a digital voice.)
- Fonts can change the font style and size.

Prefer to browse? Use the menu along the left side of the screen to view publications by topic, country, or language. Click the "three line" menu button  at the top left side of the screen and select Publications. Select your language, country or topic. To view a publication, click the cover image. To view an article, click the green arrow at the bottom of the article.

USING THE PRESSREADER APP

- ▲ To scroll through available publications, click the Browse button and swipe to page through the list.
- ▲ To view a publication, tap the cover or click the arrow at the bottom of the publication.
- ▲ To automatically download new issues of a publication, swipe the button next to Auto-download new issues. Scroll down the page to see back issues of each publication.
- ▲ To listen to a publication, click the headphone icon  in the upper right corner of the screen.
- ▲ In a publication, find an article that you would like to read and click the title. The full text of the article will appear in the app. Using the menu at the bottom of the article screen, you can share the article, bookmark it, comment on the article, change the font and font size, change the page display, translate or view the article in another language, and copy the article.
- ▲ To personalize your news feed, click the For You button. Scroll down the page to see various ways to choose what appears on your Home Feed.
 - Publications - Individual magazines and newspapers
 - Sections - World news, business, entertainment, sports, etc.
 - Interests - Topics and subjects that appeal to you
